From the Founder's Desk

Mr. Dharmendra Patel

Founder, Aussizz Group

Wow, 15 years! Can you believe it?

When we kicked off in 2009, all we had was this little dream. A dream to make a difference in people's lives around the world. But honestly, did we ever think we'd get this far? Not in our faintest dreams.

Aussizz Group wasn't just a business idea; it was born out of this desire to help individuals from all sorts of places chase their dreams of studying and settling down smoothly in Australia. Our journey wasn't all smooth sailing. There were plenty of sleepless nights, but every single one was worth it. Today, we stand tall, thanks to every member of our Aussizz family. Your hard work and dedication have made us a recognized household name in the industry.

However, the inception of our dream was just a spark. Back then, the idea seemed audacious, almost too grand to be true. We were driven by a shared belief that we could make a meaningful difference, but the enormity of the global impact we envisioned was, in many ways, beyond our grasp.

While I sit down to write this keynote, I want to provide perspective on this roller coaster of a journey we have been on. By looking back, we can learn from our journey, appreciate how far we've come, and celebrate the strength and togetherness that have defined our path. This reflection is like a map, helping us move forward, wiser and stronger than before.

When we first began in 2009, the industry wasn't at its best. The sector was in survival mode, and honestly, individuals such as me were struggling to make ends meet. Furthermore, we made a bold move with Aussizz Group, focusing all our energy on one country – Australia. A lot of folks saw it as a limiter to future possibilities. But for us, it was about doing one thing and doing it well.

I distinctly remember moments in our lives where we struggled to even make ends meet to keep our dream alive. While many would count this as a rough period in our lives, it shaped my entrepreneurial personality. By not succumbing to the pressure, our early Aussizz team and I, really learned what we were made of – not just in business, but in life too. We didn't just weather the storm; we learned how to dance in the rain.

At a time like this, what drove us was our vision. Here, I'd like to highlight the importance of having a strong vision to believe in and a well strategized mission to drive our efforts. A lot of this also wouldn't be possible without the fantastic individuals in our teams. If this journey has taught me anything, then it is the fact that together, we can move mountains.

As we diversified our services and started reaching beyond Australia, branching out, diving into new places, the initial scepticism surrounding our focused approach was replaced with admiration for our audacity. It was a pivotal moment that validated our conviction in the power of a targeted strategy. This shift from just getting by to strategic expansion showcased not only our adaptability but also the strength of our vision, reinforcing the notion that challenges are stepping stones to success.

Looking back over these past 15 years, it's important to realise how far we've come. If I had to pick just one story to show what we've achieved, it'd be tough – there are so many. Yet, one recent occurrence holds a special place in my heart. This particular episode

During one of these stops at a servo, we walked in and were greeted by this enthusiastic young guy, originally from India. I asked him if we could use the restroom and maybe grab some snacks. He guided us to the toilets and then mentioned they don't have snacks for our diet, but get this – instead, he prepared something specially for us.

After freshening up, I casually began chatting with the attendant. To my surprise, he was an international student, working here on a recently acquired regional visa. This explained why he was working in such a remote location. As I shared my knowledge of the migration sector, noting our company's expertise in this area, a connection sparked.

But the truly memorable moment came when I mentioned I was the founder of Aussizz Group. The young boy's eyes widened on hearing this. He excitedly shared that it was our team that had handled and facilitated his application.

The sincerity and thankfulness in his voice moved me deeply, making me think "Here we are, on the outskirts of Adelaide city, miles away from where Aussizz Group originally began in 2009, listening to the story of a client whose life we have impacted so much.". Moments like this give us a chance to sit back and look at the monumental impact we have had in changing the lives of the local communities we have served.

Even as I write this, I am overwhelmed with feelings of absolute thankfulness. I want to emphasise that I don't aspire to be portrayed as some extraordinary founder or a superhero figure; I have no such Arthurian complex. Instead, I regard myself as an ordinary individual, much like you, who dared to dream and make it a reality. This path I have walked is not one of solitary triumph, but rather a collaborative effort, where like-minded individuals with shared aspirations came together to form a family bound by a shared vision.

Over the course of the next fifteen years, our unwavering vision remains steadfast. Our commitment is firm: to persistently and positively influence the lives of those in need. Looking ahead, our main aim is to maintain our transformative work, extending help to all who seek it. When people place their trust in us, we vow to exceed expectations by going the extra mile in our endeavours to make a meaningful difference in their lives. This enduring dedication is a long-term pledge to consistently go beyond what's expected, creating lasting and positive changes for the better.

During this journey, Aussizz Group has impacted this sector like never before. As you flick through the pages of this magazine, you will understand the emotions behind the incredible story of Aussizz Group. But it would be a disservice to call this a personal moment of pride because this is a story that has been shaped by the contributions of hundreds of individuals who proudly call Aussizz Group their second home.

Let us continue this remarkable journey with hearts filled with gratitude and a shared determination to shape futures, one dream at a time. Here's to the next fifteen years of unwavering commitment, transformative impact, and the collective strength that defines Aussizz Group. Together, let's script more stories of success, resilience, and positive change, for we are not merely architects of dreams; we are the architects of a better tomorrow.

Dharmendra Patel
Founder, Aussizz Group

not only underscores the impact we have on those we serve but also reminds us of the deep emotional connections we make because of what we do.

A few months ago, my colleagues and I were driving down to Adelaide, for an event that would see the coming together of organisations and individuals working towards the betterment of international education in this country. We had a long drive from Melbourne, with a couple of stops along the way.

I don't aspire to be portrayed as some extraordinary founder or a superhero figure... I regard myself as an ordinary individual, much like you, who dared to dream and make it a reality.

We're more than a group; we're a testament to what unity and shared purpose can achieve.

Dear Readers,

Every journey starts small, mine included.

Starting as a migration admin in 2018, I was brimming with hopes and dreams. Fast forward to today, as the Director of Aussizz Group Dandenong, I've learned that our journey here is more than just work—it's about creating a community, a family.

Take our ten-year anniversary celebration, for instance. It wasn't just about hitting a milestone. It was about celebrating our unity, our shared journey. These moments are the real achievements, the ones that bring us together, beyond the professional sphere.

One standout memory is the Aussizz Cricket League in Victoria. Our teams, formed from our talented staff, were not just about cricket. They were about teamwork, passion, and a shared spirit. This wasn't just a game; it was a reflection of our culture, where we support and uplift each other beyond work.

It's this sense of belonging and connection that has driven our success. We've built a space where everyone is motivated, supported, and a part of something bigger.

Looking ahead, my goal for the Dandenong branch and our communities is bold transformation. We're crafting strategies to foster a stronger, more cohesive team. This is possible through the support that has always been our backbone.

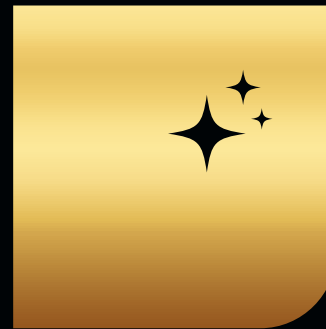

We're more than a group; we're a testament to what unity and shared purpose can achieve. Here's to journeying together, reaching new heights, and strengthening our bond.

From Learning to Leading: The Professional Year Program

When we started our Professional Year services in 2012, one of the major pain-points that was established early on, was the overlooking of individual journeys. Students who had finished their courses were expected to fit in seamlessly to the Australian job market, which was an overwhelming obstacle.

With a primary aim of upskilling migrants to align with the goals of the Australian migration programs, our professional services extend beyond conventional models. At the heart of our mission is the commitment to transform migrants into invaluable contributors to the workforce. By connecting them to appropriately tailored programs, we address skill gaps, ensuring that individuals not only find jobs but thrive in their professional endeavours.

For students aspiring to make Australia their academic haven, our services were created to extend beyond the classroom. We navigate the complex landscape for them, providing students with access to skills that are not just academically enriching but also strategically aligned with their migration goals. It's about crafting a seamless pathway from education to migration success.

Our experts across Aussizz Group have connected tens of thousands of students to Professional Year programs that have created the foundation for their prosperous careers. This is a testament to the efforts of our stakeholders and partners, who have believed in us from day one.

As we reflect on our journey, we find fulfilment in the stories of triumph and growth that have unfolded. Our commitment to unlocking opportunities for migrants and students is not just a service; it's a shared vision towards realising dreams. Each success story is a testament to the profound impact of our collective efforts.

Looking ahead, we embrace the future with enthusiasm and dedication. The coming years are not merely a continuation but a canvas where new aspirations will be painted. Aussizz Group eagerly anticipates being a part of the journeys yet to unfold, continuing to guide individuals towards their goals and celebrating the essence of success.

Leaders' Reflections

Hello Readers,

When I think about my time at Aussizz Group, which began a little more than six years ago, I'm amazed at how much it has changed and grown during that time. Joining Aussizz Group in June 2017 as a migration admin was, looking back, the beginning of a long and fruitful journey. After working my way up the ranks to become a case manager, a migration specialist and a Registered Migration Agent, I am now a proud Branch Director. As a leader, it is a privilege to motivate a group of people who are committed to doing our best work.

Over the years, I have learned that providing exceptional customer service is of the utmost importance in our line of work. It's more than just a business requirement; it's the very soul of what we do at Aussizz Group. When we set out to do something extraordinary for our clients, we make every obstacle into an opportunity. This belief motivates me to make sure that everyone in our organisation understands and exemplifies this principle. To provide our clients with exceptional customer service, we go above and beyond to meet their needs, go above and beyond to give them unfaltering support, and help them navigate the immigration and educational processes.

Through my experience in various roles, I have gained a deep understanding of our diverse clientele and their unique aspirations and obstacles. My number one goal is to make sure that everyone on my team has access to this information. Creating customised and effective solutions requires a deep understanding of our clients' diverse backgrounds and unique needs.

Coming from a different background, my own journey has been nothing short of life-altering. The depth of knowledge and the breadth of experience I've gained at Aussizz Group are extraordinary, likely surpassing what one might achieve in double the time in another industry. We are a part of the ever-evolving immigration and education services industry, and this quick growth is proof of that.

I am eagerly anticipating the opportunity to lead the management of multiple offices and play a part in Aussizz Group's growth in different regions. Our ultimate objective remains steadfast – to positively transform the lives of our clients. Through our unwavering commitment to providing exceptional services, we cultivate a vibrant community that thrives.

I am enthusiastic about what the future holds – so here's to the next 15.

Ali Ehsan

Director, Aussizz Group Bankstown

When we set out to do something extraordinary for our clients, we make every obstacle into an opportunity.

Leaders' Reflections

Dear Readers,

When I think back on my journey with Aussizz Group, which started in 2013, I'm reminded of the interesting moments and events that have made up my ten-years here.

With every new position I took on at Aussizz—from business development to education, migration to operations—I learned more about the industry and about myself. Working in each of these roles taught me invaluable lessons about the meaning of relationships, the significance of connecting with others, and how to cater to each client's individual requirements.

Aussizz Group Canning Vale began in July 2020, marking the start of a new chapter in which we could relate to individuals on a personal level, learn about their dreams, and help them reach them as well. I could relate to every client's narrative; we were all on a quest for adventure and the chance to start again.

The principles rooted in me from childhood have always been the motivation for my actions: the desire to participate in and have a positive impact on my community. It's never been just about offering services. Being with Aussizz means living up to the company's standards of professionalism and ethics while helping other people achieve their goals.

What originally started with only Karan Joshi and me, as a means to assist people in creating their own stories of adjusting to life in a foreign nation through education, employment, and more grew from being a small team in Perth to now having a presence in four locations. This is the story of trust, commitment, and the difference we've made in people's lives.

In the future, I see a team that shares this commitment, where we can all learn from one another and support one another as we progress. We believe in the power of unity and strive to help one another achieve our goals, just as we assist our clients.

As I look back, I see this place is full of progress, friendships, and a strong dedication to our communities. On this occasion, I think it's time to reflect on where we've come from and plan out where we can go from here to make a difference.

The story continues, and the chapters ahead are brimming with potential. I am excited, honoured, and ready to be a part of this ongoing story.

Mr. Bhaumik Patel

Director, Aussizz Group Canning Vale

Mr. Daksh Patel

Director, Aussizz Group Canberra

Hello Lovely Readers!

As I sit down to pen my thoughts for this special edition of our magazine, celebrating 15 years of Aussizz Group, I am reminded of the simple yet profound journey that has brought me here, to my role as Director of Aussizz Canberra.

It all started on a January morning in 2018. As a Payable Officer in the Accounts Department, my first steps in Aussizz Group were humble yet filled with a quiet determination. Little did I know that this was the beginning of a path that would take me far beyond the realms of accounting.

My journey in Aussizz was marked not by the titles I held, but by the lessons I learned and the people I met. From marketing to operations and the migration department, each role was a new chapter, each day a fresh opportunity to learn and grow. I found joy in the simplest of tasks, understanding that every small part contributes to the larger goal.

In November 2021, life presented a new challenge, an opportunity to lead Aussizz's expansion into Canberra. Starting in April 2022, this venture became more than a professional achievement; it was a testament to the faith the organization had in me, and a reflection of my own personal growth.

Today, I stand here, a collage of all the experiences and learnings gathered along the way. Each challenge faced, each obstacle overcome, has been a stepping stone, shaping me into the person I am today. I am eternally grateful for the trust and opportunities provided by Aussizz Group, a place that has been much more than a workplace.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to our clients, whose dreams and aspirations have always been at the heart of what we do, to my colleagues and mentors, who have been the pillars of support and learning, and to our partners, who have walked alongside us in this journey.

As we look ahead, I am excited about the future, about the possibilities that await us in Canberra. Together, we shall continue to grow, learn, and reach new heights.

Here's to embracing the future with the same spirit of learning and humility.

Daksh Patel
Director, Aussizz Group Canberra

Ms. Deepa Rajagopal

Learning and Workforce Development Manager

Here I am, Deepa Rajagopal, writing this note talking about my years with the Aussizz Group while we collectively stand at the crossroads of time and achievement. Let me warn you in advance, this note is going to be emotional and personal.

Almost everyone knows me as the Learning and Workforce Development Manager or probably as the Director of International Student Recruitment for Aussizz. But my association goes back 10 years, before the name became synonymous with resilience, innovation, and excellence, when I joined the organisation as a fresher in the year 2013 and that's why Aussizz Group is a big part of what I am today.

I was in my early twenties, listlessly going through life in a state of confusion when Aussizz Group happened in my life. I was entrusted with various high-stake responsibilities with absolute trust and I'd ask myself "Why do they? I am just a fresher."

The organisation had seen in me something I didn't see within myself. When they allowed and pushed me to learn, grow and mature both personally and professionally, I realised I was not just another employee. I was a vital part of a grand vision, and the responsibilities I was trusted with shaped me, moulded me into who I am today.

Mr. Dharmendra Patel, more than a mentor, was the architect of this vision backed by for personal and professional metamorphosis. Under his guidance, the workplace transformed into a canvas for creativity, a space where ideas flourished, and leadership qualities were honed. It was an environment that awakened a sense of purpose, compelling us to strive for more, to be the difference.

My trusted guide and mentor, Mr. Dharmendra Patel, was instrumental in making all of this happen. At Aussizz, he dreamed up and nurtured a culture that encouraged employees to think creatively, to innovate, and have intrapreneurship. Due to this, work became meaningful and awakened a sense of purpose within us. A desire to make a positive impact sparked in us.

My roles spanned from being an education consultant to leading teams, and finally, to shaping the future workforce as the Learning and Workforce Development Manager. This journey was not without its share of storms. But in the company of extraordinary leaders like Karan Joshi, Palak sir, Girish, and Tejas, every obstacle became an opportunity to grow stronger, to learn the art of resilience. None of the turbulence that the industry threw at us stood a chance against their wisdom and entrepreneurial spirit, making each role a space to explore and evolve, much like the varied hues of life itself.

Leaders' Reflections

Through my lived experience at this organisation, I have gained several life lessons that have shaped me as an individual. These learnings that I acquired here far surpass the teachings of even the most prestigious business schools. From learning how to lead a value-driven workplace, building an inspired workforce, to integrating and aligning people towards a common goal, I know it all now.

My mantra for success at Aussizz has been simple: never be complacent. It's about addressing challenges head-on, about expanding one's horizon beyond the defined role. This big-picture thinking has allowed me to make a meaningful impact in this incredible workplace.

To my Aussizz family and everyone reading this; to be part of Aussizz Group's story, to have contributed to its legacy, has been an honour of a lifetime. Here's to the continuing journey, to the successes yet to be achieved, and to the lives we will touch in the years to come.

PTE Tutorials: A Tale of Innovation and Success

Back in 2015, the Aussizz Group had a brilliant "aha moment."!

We're a consultancy firm with strong roots in Australia. English proficiency scores are at the heart of our services. These scores offer our clients a strategic edge in getting into prestigious institutions. And for those aiming for permanent residency, high scores mean a significant gain of 20 PR points.

As we assisted test-takers in preparing for PTE, we encountered a unique issue. Unlike IELTS, PTE was a fully computer-based test. However, most of the practice tests available were paper-based. It hadn't occurred to many that the test-takers faced not only English challenges but also struggled with typing speed and lacked practice on computers, which affected their scores.

So, we set out on a journey. We imagined a digital bridge that could smoothly connect our students to the computer-based part of the PTE exam. In 2016, we introduced our first set of practice tests, but these weren't your ordinary practice tools. They were designed to be just like the real PTE exam. Students flocked to our website, finding comfort and confidence in practice that closely resembled the actual test.

As we dug deeper into the world of PTE exams, we noticed something interesting – a set of questions that kept coming up. It was like discovering a goldmine. We affectionately called it 'Exam Memory Materials,' a collection of commonly asked questions. Test-takers could rely on it to help them navigate the unpredictable waters of the exam.

But our boldest move came in March 2017 when we launched PTE Tutorials. This platform wasn't just about questions; it was and is a place for comprehensive learning. We filled it with everything a test-taker might need – experienced tutors, a mobile app for learning on the go, and a community that felt like a family all working toward a common dream. We even added a feature that records every lecture and provides it to test-takers who've booked the online coaching plan. They can access these recordings for 45 days from the date of joining, ensuring they can review lessons at their convenience, even if they miss a class.

But you know what? Our story didn't stop there. In a time when technology was changing the game, we saw an opportunity. We used these advanced technologies to create a smart system that could mimic how Pearson scores the exam. It wasn't just about giving scores; it was about helping people reach their dreams.

Today, PTE Tutorials isn't just a platform; it's a testament to innovation and hard work. With over 715,000 success stories, we haven't just built something; we've sparked a change in how people prepare for the PTE exam online. It's an incredible journey that began with a simple realisation and bloomed into a world full of endless possibilities. Every success story, every high score, and all those dreams that came true are shining examples of this amazing journey.

Leaders' Reflections

Dear Readers,

As I sit here, thinking back to 2012 when I first joined the Aussizz Group family, it's like flipping through the pages of an old family photo album, filled with fond memories of the past. A dozen years have passed, and the journey we've shared is nothing short of extraordinary.

In the early chapters of the Aussizz Group, I found myself alongside Karan, Dharmendra, and Vaibhav, doing everything from scanning all the documents to visiting government offices like AAT and Home Affairs. We were a tight-knit team, setting the groundwork for what the company would become. Little did we know, those initial days were quietly sowing the seeds for our future successes.

Fate had its plans, leading me to our Ahmedabad branch in July 2012. There, I found myself at the forefront of team building,

By 2014, my journey circled back to Melbourne. Teaming up with Tejas, we dove in to leading our head office operations, culminating in the birth of our Clayton branch. As its Director, my heart swells with pride seeing how this branch has now blossomed, setting trends and going on to achieving milestones that resonate across Southeast Victoria.

Our branch's growth reflects our commitment not just to our clients, but to the entire community, turning every challenge into an opportunity to enrich lives.

Dear Readers,

As Aussizz Group celebrates its 15th anniversary, I am honoured to tell you about not only my personal journey but also the collective growth that our team, particularly at our Thomastown branch, has achieved.

I started my journey with Aussizz in 2016 as a migration administrator, even though I already had a MARA licence. I wanted to know the industry inside and out, so I went with this option. I had reached a personal and collective milestone in July 2018 when I took charge of our newest branch in Thomastown. This was a huge accomplishment for the entire Aussizz family.

During that initial phase, I was excited to work independently and fully immerse myself in the complex world of migration. As our Thomastown branch started to thrive, though, I saw the life-changing effects of teamwork up close. Leadership, I've come to understand, is all about giving people the tools they need to succeed, building a team that can think creatively and independently, and making a real difference in our clients' lives.

The growth of our branch mirrored my own journey from team player to manager. Becoming a pillar in the community we served became our emphasis as we developed marketing tactics and built ties within the local community. Our focus was on more than just operational excellence. If we wanted the community to have more faith in our brand and in ourselves, this adjustment was crucial.

Aussizz Group's mission has always been to improve the lives of those we work with. Every day in Thomastown, we've tried to live by this principle. Understanding and empathy have been at the heart of our customer service, which has helped us build lasting relationships and make a real difference in the community.

Setting short-term goals has been my mantra, which fits with how quickly our industry changes. This way of doing things keeps us flexible, quick to act, and always trying to do better. This way of thinking has worked well for us in Thomastown because it keeps us on top of meeting our clients' needs and adjusting to changes in migration policies. Our branch's growth reflects our commitment not just to our clients, but to the entire community, turning every challenge into an opportunity to enrich lives.

The potential that the future holds makes me excited. Clearly, the situation with migration will keep changing, bringing about new problems and chances. I'm fully committed as Director of Thomastown to leading and inspiring my team with the same drive and enthusiasm that got us here.

As we embrace the future, I'm grateful for being a part of this extraordinary journey and look forward to continuing to make a positive impact.

Dear Readers,

There's a saying that we become a little bit like the people we choose to surround ourselves with. This thought has been a guiding star in my journey through the world of migration, a journey I'm thrilled to share with you.

Back in October 2017, my story with Aussizz began at our Collins St office in Melbourne. I started as a migration admin, a role I embraced with both hands. During this time, I was also working towards my license and, in 2021, I proudly became a Registered Migration Agent at our Werribee branch. Now, in 2023, I find myself in the heart-warming role of Director of our Geelong branch.

This growth journey, so rich and fulfilling, wouldn't have been possible without the opportunities and learning provided to me. Mentors like Nirav Patel and Parth Patel played crucial roles. Their patience and willingness to share their knowledge were like beacons in my path, illuminating the way. Their approach mirrors the culture of Aussizz Group – one where knowledge-sharing and collaboration are not just encouraged but celebrated.

For that reason, Aussizz has been more than an office; it's always felt like a home and me being part of a family with a shared dedication to helping our clients realise their migration aspirations. The bonds I've formed here are not just professional ties; they're personal connections that make every day rewarding.

Looking ahead as the Director of the Geelong branch, my goal is to uphold our legacy of excellence and expand our reach in this region. I am excited to be given the opportunity to help expand our presence in Geelong, a city with so much untapped potential. With the support of our dedicated team and

CEO, Aussizz Group

Our first office, a modest 45-square-metre space, was where our story began to unfold.

Dear Readers,

When I think about how Aussizz Group has grown and changed over the past 15 years, my heart fills with pride and deep gratitude. Together with the start of the group, my trip has been nothing less than a life-changing adventure. As CEO and Director at Aussizz Group Perth, I've seen and been a part of many parts of our story, from our low start to the great heights we've reached now.

In 2006, Dharmendra and I met in the halls of college and became friends. This friendship would grow into the core of Aussizz Group. Dharmendra looked for work in India after college, but fate had other ideas and brought him back to Australia. 2009 was a hard year for Indian immigrants in this country, and that's when Aussizz Group was created. Our goal was big: to become the best migration and education consultancy firm in the world. Together with Dharmendra, I set out on a journey in 2010 to make something truly amazing.

Our first office, a modest 45-square-metre space shared with another migration firm, was where our story began to unfold. We stood out from the crowd, being young and in tune with the new generation of migrants' needs and aspirations. The apparent growth led us to our independent office at Little Collins in 2012, a significant step where Vaibhav and Vaishnavi joined our growing team and added travel services to our main services.

Leaders' Reflections

This move brought in a huge change, allowing us to serve a broader client base and solidify our reputation in the community. By 2013, there was an insatiable need to grow even more. While South Australia was our initial consideration, destiny pulled me towards Perth. The early days in Perth, with just Bhaumik and me, were a blend of excitement and uncertainty, but our passion and commitment were unwavering.

The move to Perth was quick and planned. We set up shop there on May 1, and within six months, we were doing exceptionally well. Our particular strategy, especially the way we helped clients with the RSM visa, made us stand out and was a significant component of our success. This approach proved fruitful, as many of our clients secured their visas quickly.

The hiring of our first Registered Migration Agent in Perth marked a new chapter of growth and professionalism. Our commitment to expansion was evident as we moved to a larger 190-square-metre office. It also showed how committed we are to excel and provide flawless client service.

We moved to a bigger office in 2016 because we were getting bigger. Since Bhaumik and Wendy have been with us from the beginning, they played a big role in our growth. The team expanded with more Registered Migration Agents and staff from different backgrounds and thus we focused on changing our processes to make them more efficient.

2017 brought a new challenge as I returned to Melbourne to oversee operations, a period marked by strong financial performances and growth. When I went back to Perth in 2020, my job was to plan our strategy in Western Australia, which I was very excited about.

The arrival of COVID-19 brought problems that had never been seen before. We didn't give up, though, and opened two new offices to meet the needs of the community. Our Asian clients came to our Northbridge office, while our Canningvale branch grew swiftly, moving to a bigger 450-square-metre space within two years. With the opening of the Joondalup branch, we now have thirteen Registered Migration Agents in Western Australia alone. This number tells you a lot about our growth and impact.

As CEO, part of my job has been to oversee our marketing operations along this journey. We always thought that offline marketing, especially through community events, would be effective. This approach was born from an understanding that the right marketing strategy is pivotal in achieving our goals.

We have also recognized the importance of being tech-savvy in our industry. For instance, when Facebook advertising was still in its infancy, Aussizz Group was already there, pioneering the path.

Leaders' Reflections

When Tejas created our first Facebook page, we were one of the few companies venturing into this uncharted territory. We gained the trust and credibility of our community by going against the industry norm and freely sharing migration updates on social media platforms.

I vividly recall our first Facebook Live session in 2014, an innovative phase that marked a new era in our client engagement. This direct communication with our community members needing our services the most was indeed groundbreaking.

Today, our regular live sessions are proof that we have undertaken, a journey of adaptability and community engagement.

Instead of settling on definitive long-term objectives, I think it's more important to constantly push ourselves to improve as we move forward. Aussizz Group's global impact can be related in large part to this mindset. The key is to never settle for mediocrity and to keep challenging yourself to reach new heights.

My future objectives include the further development of our current network of Australian branches and identifying potential new markets to expand into. I have great hopes for the newly opened Hong Kong branch, which I trust will help more than 200 students pursue their goals of studying abroad.

I thank you all individually for being an integral part of our story. With the same spirit of innovation and dedication that has guided us in the past, we expect even bigger things to happen in the next 15 years.

GetMyPolicy: Changing the Way You Choose Health Insurance

Scan the QR code now

In 2017, something special happened at Aussizz Group. We launched GetMyPolicy, a handy online tool for choosing the right health insurance, especially for those headed to Australia for studies, work, or travel.

GetMyPolicy supports various visa categories, including student and work visas, simplifying the choice of picking the best insurance plan by comparing options and immediately showing differences. Whether it's for an individual, couple, or family, it's got everything covered, ensuring users meet Australia's health insurance requirements. Plus, it's part of the Aussizz Group, collaborating with top Australian insurers.

It all began when we noticed how challenging it was for our agents to find the right health cover for our clients. They had to sift through endless options, balancing budgets and needs. It was a puzzle that needed solving.

We wanted to make things easier, not just for our team but for everyone facing this challenge. So, we rolled up our sleeves and got to work. Between 2015 and 2016, our IT experts were busy crafting an in-house portal. This wasn't just any tool; it was a comprehensive platform that brought all the information under one roof, making it easier to compare, choose, and even verify the details right up to the payment process.

The more we worked on it, the more we realised its potential. It deserved a bigger stage. Thus, GetMyPolicy was born – a simple, straightforward platform where anyone, regardless of their visa type, could find and select health insurance plans that matched their needs perfectly. From students to skilled workers, we had everyone covered.

But we didn't stop there. To make it truly user-friendly, we integrated a payment gateway, simplifying the process further. Now, users could not only compare and choose but also pay for their policy right there and then. It was convenience at its best.

Today, GetMyPolicy is more than a platform; it's a community's trust. It stands out as the go-to destination for health insurance for visitors, students, and workers in Australia. It's a symbol of our commitment to making lives easier and journeys smoother.

Mr. Krutin Patel

Director,
Aussizz Group Cranbourne

Dear Readers,

Have you ever stepped into a room where everything feels unfamiliar yet oddly exciting?

I did. In July 2021, when I left behind my career as an IT professional and walked into the Aussizz Group as a Migration Admin I was filled with a mixture of nerves and anticipation, just like on the first day of school. It was on that day that I realised that I have stepped into a story that's not just mine but intertwined with the lives of many who've walked the path of migration.

There was more to each client I met than just a name on a file. They were like-minded people on a journey of hope and opportunity. Their stories, which came from all over the world, made me remember why Aussizz does what it does. Visas and papers aren't the only things that matter; being a part of someone's dream of a fresh start is everything.

Mentors like Girish Patel didn't just show me the nuts and bolts of the work; they also showed me the heart behind it. These hearts beat for every person who comes through our doors, looking for help, advice, or sometimes just someone to listen.

Now, as I look around our Cranbourne office, I see a small team with hearts and dreams as vast as the Australian sky. We're dreaming big – of expanding, of building a team that doesn't just grow in numbers but flourishes in empathy and expertise. It's about creating a space where our clients don't just see us as consultants, but as partners in their journey.

I want to take a moment to thank each person who's trusted us with their dreams. To my colleagues and mentors, your support has been my anchor. To our clients, your trust is our greatest motivator.

Visas and papers aren't the only things that matter; being a part of someone's dream of a fresh start is everything.

As we celebrate 15 years of Aussizz Group, it feels like we're just getting started. The road ahead is dotted with possibilities, challenges, and triumphs.

So, here's to the stories we've been part of, to the dreams we've helped shape, and to the endless possibilities that lie ahead. Our journey continues, and I can't wait to see where it takes us all next.

challenges of being an Operations Manager head on. Eventually, I made the transition into the exciting world of RMAs with each job as a stepping stone that helped me grow as a person, helping me be the man I am today.

In this note, I want to highlight how much I've grown as a person through my time with Aussizz Group. It was the space and stage given to me by this organisation that strengthened my inner drive as a person. Surprisingly, I never had a predetermined plan to take a migration course at first. But I found guidance in Dharmendra and Karan's faith in my abilities. They recognized the potential in me, which even I hadn't seen.

Thinking outside the box isn't really something we do. I think I speak for everyone when I say that. Yet, it's the culture here that encourages us to break out of the mould, think innovatively, and strive for excellence. It's about growing together, aligning our individual aspirations with the company's vision.

Now, steering my own branch, each day is about learning, evolving, and aiming higher. It's not just about outshining other branches in a healthy competitive spirit but also about setting benchmarks in service and expertise.

Having said that, I'm eagerly anticipating the journey, taking it one year at a time, for the next fifteen years. Being the manager of my own branch is a fortunate turn of events, and I intend to maximise its potential for success. We're not just here to compete; we're here to set the bar high and consistently raise it.

Our goal hasn't changed: to be a beacon for every possible individual in the community who is trying to find their way through the complicated world of migration and education. We want Aussizz to be the first thing people think of when they need help.

Thank you for your unwavering support. Here's to continuing our journey, touching more lives, and reaching new heights together and to 15 more years of success! reaching new heights together and to 15 more years of success!

Dear Readers,

I am deeply grateful for the chance to share my thoughts with you on this occasion. Although I started out at Aussizz Group in June 2016 as a Migration Admin, I frequently switch between different roles. Before I went to Brisbane, I tried my hand at working in different departments, such as education and accounts, and loved the liveliness of our Collins Street office.

At the start of 2021, I became Director at Aussizz Mt. Gravatt, which was the start of a fresh phase full of new experiences.

Working with a diverse and talented group of people has been one of the most outstanding parts of this journey. Each team member brings a wide range of skills and experiences to the table, which makes our organisation strong. Our diversity has not only made our workplace better, but it has also been an important part of our success as a team.

I have been fortunate enough to learn from pioneers in my field, such as Dharmendra Patel, Prince Pahal, and Karan Joshi, who all placed an emphasis on innovation and excellence. I have always strived to create a caring and encouraging workplace for our hardworking employees, so they can reach their maximum potential.

As an organisation, we've come a long way thanks to the guiding principles of open communication and common goal setting that have helped us adapt to the dynamic nature of our field. When I think back on the last fifteen years, I can see that our ability to innovate and our constant commitment to a shared objective have been the primary factors responsible for our success.

I want to thank everyone who has been a part of this amazing journey from the bottom of my heart. We couldn't have done it without your constant encouragement, focus, and effort. Leaders' Reflections

Dear Friends,

As I look back on my beginning in 2015 at the Ahmedabad office of Aussizz Group, where there were only 15 committed individuals, I am amazed at our progress in becoming a renowned international organisation in the fields of migration and education. This is a story that starts with modest origins, experiencing impressive expansion, driven by a strong commitment to achieve the highest standards.

My enthusiasm to assist in the first stages quickly aligned with the swift growth of our business. I engaged in diverse tasks, ranging from HR to marketing and accounts, which provided me with distinct perspectives on the core of our organisation. These diverse experiences provided me with a comprehensive perspective of our operations, allowing me to develop a deep grasp of the various aspects that contribute to the identity of Aussizz Group as it stands today.

In 2017, our story made a bold and daring move. We established 6-7 branches across India, which serves as evidence of our remarkable growth and the limitless prospects it had to offer us. I stepped in to play a multifaceted role in our growing firm, for which I broke the traditional boundaries.

Undoubtedly, the most crucial phase was our expansion into the Middle East through the construction of our branch in Dubai. The experience was an exploration of unfamiliar terrain, both demanding and invigorating. My time in Dubai involved devising strategies, handling disagreements, and navigating the complexity of a new market. It was a trip that taught me great lessons in flexibility and resilience.

I've enjoyed the depth of different points of view during my time at Aussizz Group. Diversity on our team isn't just a trait; it's what makes us strong and helps us come up with new ideas and work together. As a leader, it has been both a task and an honour to bring these different points of view together into an effective and dynamic work environment.

As we aim to grow into Canada and the rest of North America, our goal is clear: to provide our excellent services to more communities and become a reliable partner in immigration and education.

Personally, I am fully dedicated to creating a positive influence and my determination in this regard is resolute. I am committed to instilling inspiration, motivation, and effecting tangible change in the lives of individuals. My experience with Aussizz Group has been exceptional, and I am excitedly looking forward to the next challenges and successes that await me.

It was like nurturing a plant – giving it water, making sure it got enough sun, and seeing it blossom.

Dear readers,

Way back in 2009, a special chapter in my life started when I joined Aussizz Group. It was a new beginning, both for me and for the Group itself. Thinking about these 15 years brings a smile to my face and a lot of happy memories.

In our small office in Ahmedabad, Dharmendra Patel, who was leading us, then went to Melbourne to spread our good work there. My wife and I took care of our Ahmedabad family.

We put in many hours of work, but it felt good. It was like nurturing a plant – giving it water, making sure it got enough sun, and seeing it blossom. We learned so much, like how to be strong, to keep going, and to believe in our dream.

Our family grew bigger with time. By 2017, Aussizz Group had offices in many cities in India. My job had lots of different things to do – talking to people, planning, and helping the team. One exciting time was when we started our office in Dubai. It was a big step for us. We all learned new things there, like solving tough problems and finding new ways to work.

The most important thing I've learned is to listen to everyone and understand them. Our office is like a big family from different places. Everyone has their own stories and ideas. My job is to make sure we all work together happily.

Being positive and ready to help has always been important in our work. We try our best and believe that good things will happen. This is what makes Aussizz Group a special place.

Now, we are dreaming of growing Aussizz in Canada and North America. We want to be there for more people and help them with their dreams.

I want to say a big thank you to everyone who has been part of this journey. I am excited to see where our story goes from here. Here's to more good times and making more dreams come true!

Hello Readers,

As Aussizz Group celebrates its 15th anniversary, I find myself reflecting on a decade-long journey that's been more than just a professional path—it's been a journey of heart, kinship, and shared dreams.

I started working for Aussizz in April 2014 in our Melbourne office. It was a fresh start, just like the ones our clients started. Dharmendra Patel was more than just a teacher; he was like an older brother who helped me find my way through the complicated immigration and education systems. Each client's story reminded me of my own family and friends back in India. They were all full of hope, working towards a better future, and each trusted us to be their companions in this crucial phase of life. The very realisation of what I witnessed started giving me the much-needed drive in me.

My growth to Director at our Werribee and later Truganina branches was not just a climb up the professional ladder; it was a deepening of these bonds. I learned that our work goes beyond visas and paperwork; it's about nurturing dreams, much like a family nurture its young. I was soon honoured with the "Best Employee" award. This showed me that success is not something you do by yourself, but something you do with other people.

In retrospect, I miss the joyous get-togethers back home, where people would celebrate and share tales of overcoming adversity. The stories we've woven together at Aussizz Group are as diverse as the clients we've served and the lives we've touched. Rather than being a faceless corporation, we are a close-knit community that helps each other out in good times and bad.

As migrants, we hold the principles of honesty, respect, and steadfast support in high regard, and we strive to live up to these ideals in everything that we do. There will be many more chances to carry on this path of genuine service and community development down the road ahead.

So, to our wonderful Aussizz family—our team, clients, and partners—my gratitude for your trust and support is as deep as the roots of a banyan tree, providing strength and stability to our endeavours. Together, let's keep weaving this beautiful story of hope, success, and shared dreams!

Leaders' Reflections

Dear readers,

This journey has been special for me. In the last 15 years Aussizz Group has grown by leaps and bounds. In the eight years I have been with this organization, I am humbled and proud to have witnessed the changes we have undergone.

In 2015, I embarked on my voyage with Aussizz Group as a Telecaller. Little did I know that this step was the beginning of a journey that would witness numerous roles and significant professional growth. From a Team Leader to the helm as Operations Manager, then progressing further to Country Manager and eventually becoming a Branch Director, each role brought its unique set of challenges and learning experiences.

The pinnacle of this journey, the role of Chief of Staff in 2023, is a testament to the growth opportunities provided by Aussizz Group. Each position contributed not only to my personal development but also to the evolution of the organization as a whole. I have had the privilege of witnessing the dynamic nature of the migration industry and adapting to its changing landscape, and this journey has been nothing short of extraordinary.

Throughout this transformative process, key learnings have shaped my approach to leadership. Team management, a fundamental aspect of my roles, has taught me the art of leading with empathy and understanding. Working for the client and not merely for personal gain has been a guiding principle, emphasizing the essence of customer service. This customer-centric approach has not only fueled our success but has also fostered long-term relationships built on trust.

A crucial realization in my journey is the understanding that excellence in one role can always translate to success in any other. The work ethic cultivated in the early stages of my career has been a constant companion, enabling smooth transitions between roles. Being good at what you do is a universal principle that transcends job titles, creating a foundation for continuous professional growth.

For my goals, in the short term, I aim to attain proficiency in my current field while simultaneously cultivating skills in a field that captivates my interest—specifically, video production. My aspiration extends beyond mere cinematography; I aspire to excel in this domain and apply these skills to significant projects such as live shows.

Mr. Paras Panchal

Chief of Staff

Looking towards the long term, I envision a future where I am not employed beyond the age of 45. At this stage my money would work for me, and I can spend my time focusing on my ultimate goal of supporting animal shelters. While I have other projects in mind, I prefer to keep the details confidential for now.

With that, I would like to conclude this keynote. It has been my biggest honour to contribute to the legacy of our organization, and I am excited about the future chapters that will undoubtedly unfold as we continue our journey of excellence. Here's to many more years of success, innovation, and positive impact on the lives we touch.

CCL Tutorials: The Story of Dreamers

Scan the QR code now

At Aussizz Group, since our inception in 2009, we've been helping those who have dreams of a life in Australia create their future and pave the way for them. At a turning point in our history, the Australian Government introduced the NAATI CCL test in 2018 as a means to give migrants a new path towards their goal of permanent residency.

The NAATI CCL, an assessment that measures an individual's proficiency in understanding conversations across many languages, became a crucial part of the permanent residency application process. Scoring well meant securing 5 extra points, crucial for many in their skilled migration visa applications.

We quickly realised there was a significant gap in the market. Information about the NAATI CCL test was scarce, and even scarcer were resources and coaching for it. Seizing the opportunity, we channelled our expertise and passion into developing CCL Tutorials, an all-encompassing platform designed to guide aspirants through every nuance of this crucial test.

Our approach was holistic. We didn't just focus on the technicalities of language interpretation; we aimed to imbue our clients with the confidence and skills required to excel. Our resources include comprehensive study materials, meticulously crafted practice tests, and interactive sessions covering a wide range of languages other than English (LOTE). A key feature of CCL Tutorials is that every lecture is recorded and made available to students who've opted for online coaching. These recordings are accessible for 45 days from their joining date, allowing students to revisit lessons as often as needed.

Our team of language specialists became more than tutors; they were mentors, guiding lights, helping each student navigate the complexities of the test. The success of our students wasn't just reflected in their scores but in the confidence with which they faced the challenge.

Today, our CCL Tutorials stand as the gold standard of excellence in NAATI CCL coaching. Our 100% success ratio is unparalleled, a testament to our dedication and our students' hard work. But what fills us with the most pride isn't just the numbers; it's the stories of achievement, of dreams realised, and of futures secured.

As we look to the future, our commitment remains steadfast. We continue to evolve, adding new languages, refining our methodologies, and ensuring every student that joins us is not just prepared for a test but equipped for life in Australia. And we're just getting started.

Leaders' Reflections

Dear Readers,

As Aussizz Group celebrates its 15th anniversary, I'd like to share a reflection on my own growth and discovery within this inspiring organisation, which led me to my current job as Director of Aussizz Hawthorn.

The first thing I did for Aussizz was work as a Migration Admin in July 2014. This job was the first step on a path that would lead to unexpected chances and deep learning. When I got my licence as a Registered Migration Agent in November 2018, it was more than just a big step in my career. It was a moment when I realised how powerful persistence and belief can be in changing things.

Each challenge and experience along this path taught me something about being resilient and adaptable. I learned that reaching goals isn't the only thing that makes you successful; the journey of self-discovery and growth that each goal brings is what really matters.

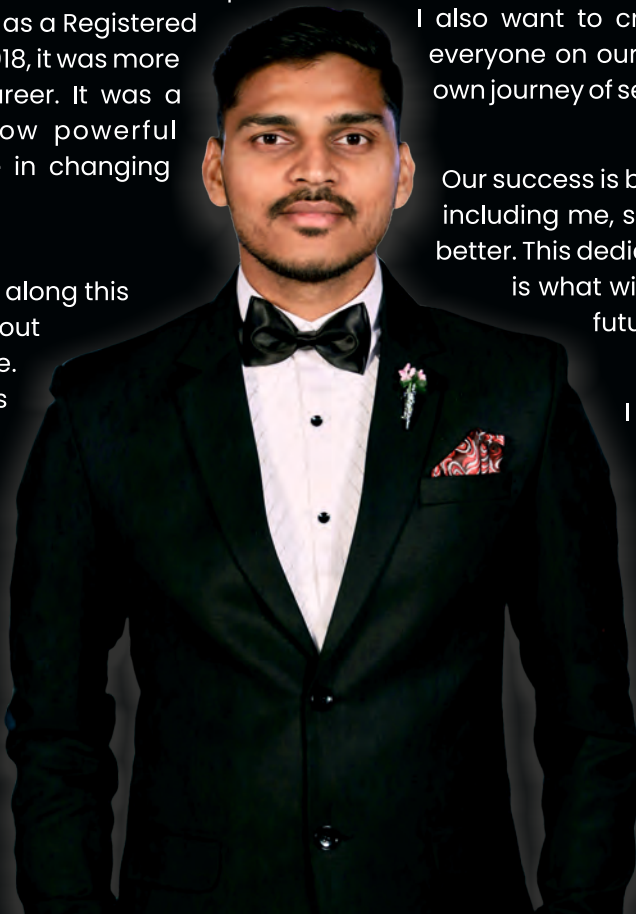

From what I have seen, leadership is about having deep connections with both other people and ourselves. Being brave enough to make your own way and smart enough to show others the way are both important. This philosophy has been reflected in my time at Aussizz Group, where I learned from visionary leaders who shaped not only my career but also my approach to life.

As we look to the future, I want to continue growing as a leader who inspires and empowers others, and I also want to create an environment where everyone on our team feels free to start their own journey of self-discovery and growth.

Our success is built on the idea that everyone, including me, should always be trying to get better. This dedication to progress and growth is what will carry Aussizz Group into the future.

I want to express my sincere appreciation to our clients, co-workers, and partners, who have been extremely valuable to this journey. Together, we have built a legacy, and the best is yet to come.

Leaders' Reflections

Dear Readers,

Hi there! It's a real joy to share my journey with you today, especially as we celebrate 15 years of Aussizz Group's incredible story. It's been quite a ride, and I'm thrilled to tell you all about it.

I began a new and exciting chapter in my career in 2016 when I joined Aussizz Group in Perth as a Senior Consultant. Now, after all these years, I'm still here, helping out with our successes in Western Australia and, most recently, leading our new Joondalup branch. Learning and growth have been abundant along this path.

There is always something new to discover in this migratory world; each day is like turning a page in a book. The key to giving our clients the best service possible is keeping up with the latest information, which is constantly evolving. Being a lifelong learner means we can guarantee that the advice we give is up-to-date and accurate at all times.

As time passed, my role evolved, and so did my approach to work. I started out wanting to manage everything on my own, but I quickly realised something important: the power of teamwork. When we work together, sharing tasks and ideas, our team flourishes. And here's the thing – if my team grows, I grow too. This quote has become my guiding principle, reminding me that our success is truly a collective effort.

Now, as we open our doors in Joondalup, I feel like it's a new beginning, much like when I first joined in Perth. This new branch is another opportunity for me to apply this philosophy of growth and teamwork. It's about nurturing this new 'baby' of ours, ensuring it thrives and becomes a significant part of Aussizz Group's global family.

Looking ahead, I'm filled with excitement for what the future holds. It's not just about seeing our new branch succeed, but also about watching our entire team, across all branches, grow and achieve new heights.

Thank you for being a part of our story, and I can't wait to see where this journey takes us next.

Leaders' Reflections

Dear Readers,

I'm writing this with a heart full of gratitude, thinking about the amazing journey and the hurdles that have shaped Aussizz Group into what it is today.

I started working here as a Business Development Manager in March 2011 and honestly, I had no idea then that I was stepping into a path that would change me so much – personally and professionally. Watching Aussizz Group grow over the years into a name that's now a go-to for countless students and migrants, has been nothing short of amazing.

In October 2016, I took up the role of Director of Aussizz Group Queensland. This was a big step for me. Leading our team through ups and downs, we've turned tough times into chances to shine. It's the never-give-up spirit of our team that's really pushed us to where we are now.

Having been an international student myself, I deeply feel every fear and dream. It's this shared journey that drives me to ease the path for others at Aussizz Group. Sure, my past corporate life gave me some good skills, but it's the lively, ever-changing nature of our work here that keeps me on my toes.

Every day at Aussizz Group is a new learning experience. Dealing with challenges has made me stronger and more resilient. Getting to meet people from different backgrounds, both within our team and our clients, has been a huge plus in my life.

Looking forward, I've got my eyes set on a few things – getting even better at communication, teamwork, making quick decisions, and knowing how to delegate work effectively. I also want to explore new business areas, grow my network, and get really good at managing my time. But, amidst all this, I know it's important to keep a balance between work and family – that's what true success is all about, right?

Let's keep taking on challenges as they come, learn from them, and work together towards a future that's even brighter than today.

Thank you for being such a big part of our story.

Leaders' Reflections

Dear Readers,

As I sit down to share my story with you, it feels like opening the pages of a diary filled with aspirations, challenges, and triumphs. My journey with Aussizz Group, beginning in November 2017 at our Clayton office, has been nothing short of a cinematic story.

My first day on the job as an education consultant was filled with excitement and a sense of adventure as I strode into the office. In those formative years, under Girish Patel's stern guidance, I focused on building my career path, with each day bringing a fresh lesson and every challenge a chance to learn and improve.

But let's rewind a bit to when this all started. At 19, during a trip to Malaysia, I had a chance encounter with Dharmendra Patel. That meeting was like a scene straight out of a movie, where a brief interaction changes the course of the hero's life. Dharmendra's entrepreneurial spirit and vision left a lasting impression on me, igniting a spark to be part of Aussizz Group's vision.

In the year 2021, the storyline took an even more surprising turn. I was given the chance to take charge of Aussizz Group Dubai. Expanding our reach across the Middle East and helping people achieve their dreams was our aim. Bringing our expertise to a wide range of customers was our main focus.

Looking back on the years I've spent with Aussizz Group, I can't express how grateful I am. Each encounter, each customer success story, has been a turning point in my life's narrative, providing me with invaluable lessons.

I am overjoyed about the future as we commemorate the 15th anniversary of Aussizz Group today. What lies ahead is an adventure of discovery and exploration, with the goal of creating a positive impact on Dubai and the wider Middle East. I can't wait to keep going, contributing to a story that transcends countries and cultures, creating more chapters, and making a difference in more people's lives.

Thank you for being a part of this incredibly awesome story.

Dear Lovely Readers,

Time truly flies, doesn't it?

Here we are, celebrating a grand 15-year journey of Aussizz Group, and I find myself reminiscing about the day I joined this incredible family on the 19th of September 2016, as a migration admin.

Today, as I write to you, I'm filled with gratitude and a bit of surprise at being the Director and a Registered Migration Agent.

It's been a journey sprinkled with dreams, aspirations, and a lot of learning. Aussizz Group, in its nurturing way, sponsored my migration course, holding my hand as I ventured towards achieving my dreams. It's this personal touch, this warmth in our approach that's central to everything we do here.

As the first woman to sit in the director's chair in our group, I carry with me not just my aspirations but also the dreams of many other women in our organisation. It's about empowering each other, growing together, and making sure that synergy isn't just a word we use, but something we live by.

Now, talking about immediate goals, it's all about the continued growth and success of our branches, and of course, the upliftment of our communities. It's not just about being the best in the business but also about putting our heart and soul into everything we do.

On a more personal note, I'm hoping to get back to my law studies, a passion that's been waiting patiently for me. It's something close to my heart, and I believe it will further enable me to support our community in more ways than one.

And before I sign off, here's a little nugget of wisdom: every story is unique, just like every one of us. It's not about comparing or competing, but about nurturing and loving ourselves and those around us. When we set our hearts to it, everything aligns beautifully.

Here's to more stories, more dreams, and an endless journey of growth and success!

Leaders' Reflections

Dear Readers,

I'm truly honoured to share my story with you in this special edition of our magazine.

Coming from an IT background, I began my stint at Aussizz in January 2021, entering the migration sector. Fast forward to now, from becoming a Registered Migration Agent in April 2023 to leading our Macquarie branch, it's been an electrifying experience.

I am grateful for the lessons I have learned on this journey. The shift from information technology to a business setting in the migration industry was challenging, but I was confident in my leadership skills. It reaffirmed my conviction that continuous learning is essential for advancing one's profession. Along this journey, Vaibhav Patel and others have been my pillars, greatly impacting my career development.

This year marks Aussizz Group's 15th anniversary, so it's a good time to think back on our founding principles and future goals. Our objective is clear. We empathise deeply with our clients and that is why we at Aussizz have been able to dedicate ourselves to helping people achieve their dreams by being there for them every step of the way and working tirelessly to fulfil their dreams and ambitions.

There are challenges for sure, but it is when we face and overcome that our commitment to help is seen and appreciated. After all, these are not just services to be provided. It's also a way of helping migrant communities progress which in turn leads to the overall development of the region and its people.

This path isn't just ours at Aussizz; it's been beautifully shaped by you, our clients. Your trust and stories have been the heart of what we do. Moving forward, I'm excited about our shared journey ahead, filled with new challenges and achievements.

To everyone in the Aussizz family, I am incredibly grateful. We couldn't have grown without your help. Cheers to a future where we can rejoice in our successes as a team, not simply at individual goals.

One profound lesson stands out from my time with Aussizz Group: the value of commitment and the power of seizing opportunities.

Dear readers,

Reflecting on the past 11 years with Aussizz Group, from my start as an intern in 2012 to witnessing our remarkable growth today, my journey has been a testament to transformation and ambition.

Back in Geelong, when I decided to move away from the retail sector, I was driven by a desire to explore new horizons in Melbourne. Despite the distance, I saw an opportunity for substantial professional development in an environment brimming with potential.

In those early days, we were at the forefront of marketing innovation. We embraced platforms like Facebook when they were still novel to businesses and were among the first to utilize Facebook Live. Our approach wasn't just digital; we also sponsored offline events, trailblazing new paths in the education and migration sectors.

My journey then took a significant turn as I moved to Ahmedabad. Here, I played a crucial role in expanding our operations. The experience of setting up a new office enriched my understanding of our business's intricate workings. Upon returning to Australia in 2014, as we expanded into Perth and Sydney, I became a Registered Migration Agent, contributing further to our growth.

Leading the Adelaide office has been an extraordinary privilege. Serving the communities in South Australia has been more than a role; it's been a journey of connection and impact.

One profound lesson stands out from my time with Aussizz Group: the value of commitment and the power of seizing opportunities. Our story, while it may appear as a straightforward success, is underpinned by our backgrounds – many of us started with humble beginnings. We leveraged the right opportunities at the right time, surrounded by the right people, to uplift our lives and secure our futures.

Looking ahead, we are excited about the prospect of opening a third office in South Australia. This expansion isn't just about growth; it's a reflection of our ongoing commitment to reach and assist more individuals in their immigration and education journeys.

From the bottom of my heart, I extend my gratitude to everyone who has been part of this incredible journey. Your support and trust have been integral to our story.

Leaders' Reflections

Mr. Vaibhav Patel

Director, Aussizz Group NSW

Dear Readers,

I am overwhelmed with thankfulness as I sit here and write this message. Reflecting on the past fifteen years with Aussizz Group, I am reminded I am taken back to the time when the company was formed. In these years, I have grown, learned, and strived relentlessly to be the best migration and education consultant I can be.

From day one, we started out with the same vision: to give world-class services to people who are working towards achieving their Australian Dream. This dream, which was nurtured by families and individuals who worked hard, has been the root of our purpose. In Australia, we wanted to be more than just a consulting firm. We wanted to be a source of hope for our clients and lead them to a better future.

Achieving such a huge goal took more than just one person's hard work. It needed the hard work and cooperation of a whole team—a family of passionate professionals who wanted to make a change for the better. Each person on our team has been exceptionally significant, bringing their skills and heart to the success of the whole.

A fortunate turn of events led me to Aussizz Group. A chance meeting with Dharmendra Patel was all that I needed to be impressed. After all, his vision and commitment were very much in line with how I do things at work. Not long after that, I was right in the middle of Aussizz Migration. As an administrative officer, it was my job to do a lot of different things, from making material to setting up processes. These jobs were not only stepping stones for my career; they were also formative times that changed how I lead and serve others.

The friendship and bond I've built with Dharmendra Patel and Karan Joshi has been one of the best parts of my work. Because we all had the same goals and respected each other, we worked well together and became the main force behind Aussizz Group. By 2012, when I was in charge of running day-to-day activities, I had a strong sense of purpose. We were planning the company's future and laying the groundwork for Aussizz Group to become what it was meant to be.

When we expanded to Perth in 2013, it was a big moment in our history. While going into Western Australia did come with a number of challenges, we were able to get through them by working together and being determined. This period also saw the growth of my personal passion for migration and education consultancy and in 2014 I finally got my MARA licence. This accomplishment was not just a personal milestone but a reflection of our collective growth.

I saw our joint ambitions come true as Aussizz Group spread its wings across New South Wales, opening offices in Macquarie Park, Bankstown, Parramatta, and Sydney CBD. Each new branch represented our commitment to reach and serve a diverse clientele, adapting and evolving to meet their varied needs.

Over the years, our operations have been driven by a steadfast dedication to doing what is right. "Right is right even if no one is doing it; wrong is wrong even if everyone is doing it" – this principle has shaped our decisions and interactions. Honesty, compassion, and integrity have been our values of reference. This is because we understand the significance of the trust our clients place in us, often making life-changing decisions based on our counsel.

Leaders' Reflections

Our objective is clear. We empathise deeply with our clients and that is why we at Aussizz have been able to dedicate ourselves to helping people achieve their dreams.

Providing consistently excellent service is something we are really proud of. We always aim to provide our clients with excellent service and work alongside them since we know how valuable their confidence is to us. Because of this dedication, we have been able to achieve remarkable success and gain the trust and loyalty of our customers.

One other important factor in our success has been innovation. We are still a medium-sized organisation, but we've made an effort to be innovative and creative. Our Global Talent Visa team exemplifies our capacity to deliver specialised services and sets us apart from the competition. Working with global companies has allowed us to demonstrate our adaptability and drive, making us one of the strongest contenders in the market.

Our goals for the future are even more significant. The growth of Aussizz Group's international footprint, fortification of our business partnerships, acceleration of innovation, and solidification of our position as market leaders are all part of our strategic plan. Armed with knowledge, skill, and the same innovative drive that has gotten us this far, we are ready to enter this next stage of expansion.

Lastly, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to Dharmendra Patel, an individual who has been an incredible role model and mentor to me. His exceptional leadership skills and fresh perspectives have played a crucial role in propelling Aussizz Group to its present success. Also, I want to thank everyone who has been a part of our adventure, from the very first ones to join us, to those who have joined along the way and even those who have gone their own ways. In order to reach this point, every single person's help, no matter how tiny, has been critical.

I can't wait to see what the future holds as we stand at the brink of a new era. We appreciate you being a part of the Aussizz Group's history, which is one that keeps on growing, changing, and leading the way.

Dear readers,

In honour of Aussizz Group's fifteenth anniversary, I'd like to offer my heartfelt congratulations to all of our hardworking staff, important stakeholders, business associates, and, most importantly, our invaluable customers.

Beginning my own journey on September 16, 2016, I started working for Aussizz Group in Melbourne as a Migration Admin. Under Dharmendra Patel's guidance, I gained an understanding of the industry's inner workings and the weight of responsibility that comes with our work in migration. We, being migrants ourselves, truly understand our clients' struggles and expectations, providing them with more than just services—hope for a better future in Australia.

I gained greater insight into immigration and education throughout my transfer from Melbourne to Clayton, aided by Girish Patel. The commitment I have towards hard work and pursuit of greatness had its beginnings here. Afterwards, I had the opportunity to work with my buddy Abhi Mangukiya at our Dandenong branch, where I polished my leadership abilities, discovered the importance of strong teams, and helped cultivate a great work environment.

My present position as Director at Aussizz Group Pakenham is a result of a series of fortunate events. At this turning point in my career, I had the chance to not only advance in my profession but also to live out and promote Aussizz Group's mission of being an indication of direction for our clients.

Our customer-centric approach is deeply ingrained in our company culture. Since we know that behind every application is a story and behind every visa is a dream come true, we have made it our mission to put our clients first in everything that we do. Building relationships, trust, and contributing to our clients' futures in Australia is more important to us than just doing business. We have always been able to distinguish ourselves and achieve each and every one of our clients' dreams because of the deep connection we have with their ambitions.

What excites me most about the future is the potential for our team, our clients, and the communities we serve to accomplish great things together. As a community bound together by shared values and goals, let us welcome this future with open arms.

Mr. Wendy Cheung

Director, Aussizz Group Northbridge and Hong Kong

Lovely Readers,

I stand here today, Wendy Cheung, Director of Aussizz Group Northbridge and Hong Kong, reflecting on a journey that began with a simple step into Aussizz Group on a day in September 2014. What unfolded since then is a story of growth, transformation, and shared aspirations that I am proud to recount.

My drive to join as an Education Consultant stems from a desire to have a significant impact in the fields of migration and education, driven by both ambition and a deep passion. Over the years, my responsibilities within Aussizz Group changed, reflecting the company's rapid expansion. Beginning in January 2016, I eagerly took on the demanding but ultimately satisfying role of Business Manager. Fast forward to 2020, and I found myself in the esteemed position of General Manager in Western Australia.

After that, a fresh phase started in June 2023, when I was appointed Director of Northbridge and Hong Kong. This position represented more than just a career high point; it was a tangible representation of the faith and support that the Aussizz Group family extended to me. I came to understand the significance of our combined efforts in influencing the lives of numerous people who were seeking assistance with their migration and educational ambitions at this place.

We have worked hard to create an environment at Aussizz Group where different perspectives are not only tolerated but valued.

This conviction has served as a guide for our fifteen years of service and success. We have built a strong and resilient community through working together, having common goals, and respecting each other.

My work philosophy has always been centred around being very proactive and consistent. In our ever-changing industry, this approach is more than a strategy; it's a commitment to staying ahead and adapting swiftly. That's why our ambitions at Aussizz Group are grand yet deeply rooted in our commitment to making a positive difference.

We seek to expand our reach, explore new territories, and build lasting partnerships that extend our impact beyond borders. This vision is a reflection of our dedication to providing invaluable services and opportunities on a global scale.

As we commemorate our 15th year, my heart is filled with gratitude and excitement for what lies ahead. Thank you, everyone. We are there for you, always.

Empowering Communities and Environment:

Our Corporate Social Impact

At Aussizz Group, we don't just talk about making a difference; we live it every day. Our CSR actions are all about rolling up our sleeves and getting stuck in - whether it's planting trees, running for a cause, or standing shoulder to shoulder with those in need.

It's about real people, real stories, and real impact. Our initiatives are more than just projects; they're our way of giving back, showing care, and building stronger, healthier communities.

Here's how we're turning our words into actions with these heartfelt CSR initiatives that define who we are.

CELEBRATIONS

For a Green Future: ✨ Tree Plantation Drive

In a drive towards environmental sustainability, our team members came together to plant trees around our office premises. This initiative not only beautified our surroundings but also contributed to a greener, healthier space near our office.

Health at the Forefront: ✨ Employee Health Checkups

Recognizing the importance of health, we conducted comprehensive health checkups for all our employees. Aussizz is a family and the health of each and every family member matters.

Solidarity in Crisis: ✨ COVID-19 Relief Efforts

During the challenging times of COVID-19, our employees got together to contribute and distribute food to the needy. This act of solidarity was our way of standing strong with the community.

CSR Programs

Running for a Cause: Partnership with the Leukaemia Foundation

In 2021, we joined hands with the 'Leukaemia Foundation' in their 5K RUN campaign to raise awareness and combat leukaemia. It was more than a run; it was a stride towards hope and healing.

Supporting Dreams: Project #ReachOut

In an endeavour to support international students facing financial hardships, we launched Project #ReachOut. Providing grocery kits, we stood by their side to help them out during the most vulnerable times of need.

Advocating Mental Health: Tribute to Sushant Singh Rajput

In collaboration with Celebrate India, and in memory of Sushant Singh Rajput, we planted trees and installed perches for people to sit and relax at Werribee Park. This was our way of raising awareness about mental health and the importance of nurturing it.

CSR Programs

Caring for Our Team: ✨ COVID Care-Packages

In August 2020 and September 2021, Aussizz Group Victoria sent out COVID care-packages to all staff. These packages, filled with goodies and a personal message from our Founder and Director, were a token of appreciation for their relentless efforts during challenging times.

Enriching Lives: ✨ Food Distribution with NGOs

Partnering with a local NGO, we reached out to impoverished families with a simple yet profound gesture – providing nourishing and nutritious meals. This initiative was about sharing warmth and sustenance with those in need.

Empowering Young Minds: ✨ Educational Support

Education is a powerful tool for change. We aided this cause by distributing free notebooks and stationery to underprivileged students, helping young minds to dream big and achieve more.

CSR Programs

Cancer Donation: Movember Movement for Men's Health

In 2012, Aussizz Group actively participated in the Movember initiative, supporting men's health and cancer research. Our team grew moustaches, raising awareness and funds, with a pledge of $120 for the month. This highlighted our commitment to health causes beyond our business, emphasising our dedication to community welfare.

Free Educational Seminars: Power to the People

Starting in 2014, Aussizz Group has been offering free informational seminars globally. Launched by Dharmendra Patel and Karan Joshi, these sessions educate migrants and students on visas and other processes. This is our way of supporting the community, ensuring informed and successful transitions for newcomers.

International Community Events: Building Bridges to Connect

Aussizz Group actively fosters community connections through various community events in Australia. We were a major sponsor of MOVSA – Melbourne Overseas Vietnamese Student Association Inc. In Victoria, we hosted the End of Term Activity and Appreciation Lunch with FASTCO – Filipino Australian Student Council of Victoria, celebrating student achievements.

Old Age Home Visit ✨

The team from Aussizz Group Delhi, including the director, shared a memorable day at a local old age home. They spent quality time with the elderly residents, engaging in conversations, sharing meals, and even celebrating with a cake. This heartfelt gesture was accompanied by donations of money and food, reflecting a deep commitment to caring for the senior community.

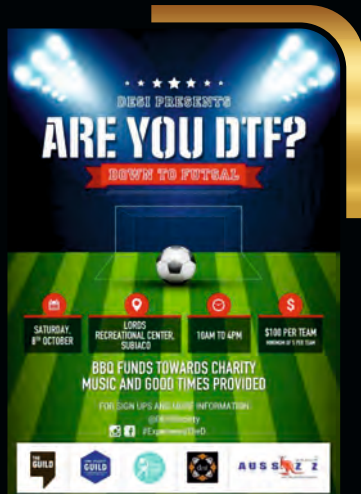

Blind School Engagement ✨

In an inspiring visit to a Blind School, the Aussizz Group Delhi employees brought joy and warmth to the children and adults there. The day was filled with fun activities, laughter, and the sharing of meals, highlighting the importance of inclusivity and the joy of giving.

Bangla Sahib Gurudwara Contribution ✨

Demonstrating humility and the spirit of community service, the team made a significant donation to the Bangla Sahib Gurudwara in 2023. They contributed essential items like sugar, tea leaves, pulses, oil, and wheat flour for the langar. This act upheld the principle that everyone is equal, regardless of their background, in the pursuit of serving those in need.

Promoting Community Spirit: Our Sports Events

Aussizz Group believes in uniting communities through sports. In 2016, we joined forces with the DESI Student Society in Perth to launch the 'Down To Futsal' Indoor Soccer Event. This event was not just a game; it was an opportunity for international students to engage, compete, and enjoy a day filled with soccer, BBQ, and entertainment.

In 2020 and 2021, Aussizz Group Brisbane demonstrated its commitment to community spirit by sponsoring the Brisbane Cricket League, a vibrant multicultural event that unites international communities and migrants through the universal language of cricket.

Fast forward to 2022, our support for Westnam United's First Women's soccer team at the Perth African Nations Soccer Championship showcased our ongoing commitment to local sports. Hosting these events at Kingsway Sporting Complex, we reinforced our dedication to fostering community connections and celebrating cultural diversity through sports.

Similarly, in 2023, Aussizz Group Northbridge extended its support to the GO! GO! PERTH Basketball Tournament. Founded by Australian migrants, this initiative helps new Perth residents from diverse backgrounds overcome challenges such as language barriers and cultural adaptation, fostering a sense of belonging and community integration.

Aussizz Victorian Cricket League: Team Spirit in Play

The Aussizz Victorian Cricket League (AVCL) 2023 was a celebration of the wonders of collaboration in the spirit of teamwork and inclusivity. Amidst the excitement of the game, we celebrated our vibrant workplace culture and the strong bonds among our team. This event highlighted how, at Aussizz, success intertwines with meaningful connections and shared moments. Here's to many more gatherings where we excel as professionals and thrive as a unified team.

Serving Warmth on Wheels: The Food Truck Initiative

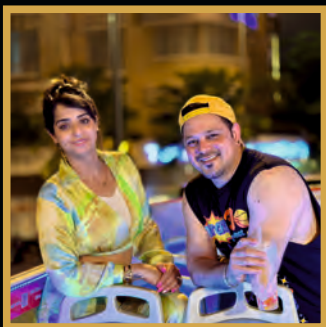

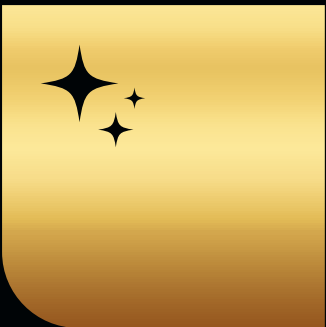

In 2023, Aussizz Group humbly extended its support to 'JET Helping Hands' in Melbourne, donating a food truck to support their noble cause. This initiative has let us genuinely reach out and provide a warm, nourishing meal to those in need. We are now serving the community, one plate at a time.

From students dreaming of a beautiful future to families reuniting, and professionals seeking growth, each visa is a milestone in someone's life journey.
